ORDER NO. 2003-505

SUBJECT: Docket No. 2003-77-C – BellSouth Public Communications, Inc. – Application for Approval to Divest Itself of its Assets. Discuss with the Commission a Motion filed by BellSouth Public Communications, Inc. for Designation of Mediator and for Entry of Protective Order. COMMISSION ACTION:

Move that BellSouth Public Communication's Motion for Designation of a Mediator and for Entry of a Protective Order be granted. Further, I move that General Counsel David Butler be designated as the Mediator. As to the Protective Order, I move that any proprietary information provided in the mediation should be usable by the Commission Staff and the parties in subsequent proceedings regarding this matter of divestiture of payphones, or the creation of a public interest payphone program provided that any such information submitted in such proceeding is submitted pursuant to a Protective Order. I also move that the request of the Women's Shelter to cancel the August 27, 2003 Oral Arguments be granted and that either party should be able to petition for a hearing on the basis of a good faith belief that mediation is unsuccessful but that a hearing if needed be set not later than 8 weeks following commencement of mediation.
